REPUBLICANS IN HOUSE TO LEAVE FOR CHICAGO

Large Number to Get Away for Convention After Vote on Naval Bill.

After the vote is taken on the naval appropriation bill in the House today, a large number of republican representatives will board the trains for Chicago to be on the ground in advance of the opening of the republican national convention. The few progressives in the House are expected to leave tomorrow for the bull moose convention which meets simultaneously in Chicago with the G. O. P. convention.

Special cars will be added to the trains for Chicago, beginning tomorrow, the reservations being held for republican representatives and the remaining newspaper correspondents, who expect to arrive in Chicago Sunday morning. Among the Chicago-bound statesmen tomorrow will be "Uncle Joe" Cannon, who has missed attendance at a republican national convention only twice since the convention which nominated Abraham Lincoln.

The legislation in the House after today is expected to be of light and uninteresting character. An agreement has been reached whereby the House will take up bills only by unanimous consent, which precludes the possibility of any controversial matters being considered. This will continue until after the Chicago convention, at least.

Contest Will of John D. O'Neill.
Mary O'Neill Lanahan of Washington, a niece, and Thomas James O'Neill of Brooklyn, N. Y., a grandnephew, have filed in the District Supreme Court a caveat against the probate of an alleged will of John D. O'Neill.

The testator attempted to dispose of forty-four dwellings in southwest Washington and personal property valued at $26,000. The contestants declare the testator was not competent to execute a valid contract when the will was said to have been signed. They attack the sufficiency of the attestation by the witnesses, which precludes the possibility of any controversial matters being considered. This will continue until after the Chicago convention, at least.

Death of Thomas Songster.
Thomas Songster, seventy years old, a bookbinder in the government printing office since 1882, died Wednesday.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Spear's chapel. Interment is to be at Glenwood cemetery.

Songster was appointed to the government printing office from Philadelphia, the city in which he was born in 1846.

OUTING OF TYPOTHETAE

WILL BE HELD JUNE 17

Members to Take Automobil-Trip to Benedict, Md.—To Fish for Prizes.

The third annual automobile outing of the Typothetae of Washington will take place Saturday, June 17, with Benedict, Md., as the objective point. The start will be made from The Star building, where all of the cars will form in line at 10 o'clock. The committee has announced the appointment of Lewis Miller Thayer and Howard S. Fisk as pilots for the occasion as in former years.

A feature of the affair will be the fishing contest which will take place after arrival on the banks of the Patuxent river. Prizes will be awarded in the afternoon for the members of the organization catching the largest hardhead, largest rockfish, largest eel, largest number of toadfish, and a prize to each member catching a salt water trout.

Box lunches will be distributed after arriving at Benedict. A commissary car will precede the caravan of automobiles. An oyster scull will be held on the beach after the last car has arrived. The route will be via Anacostia, Good Hope, Silver Hill, Camp Springs, Clinton post office, T. B. Waldorf, Bryantown, Hughesville, where the state highway will be left behind and the road will lead to Benedict. The distance is about 51.5 miles, with excellent roads, with the exception of a few miles near Benedict.

Committees in Charge.
The typothetae of Washington is
